UTAH BILL FOR SUNDAY CLOSING MEETS DEATH

(By Associated Press.) SALT LAKE, March 19.—The senate bill making a strictly closed Sunday, even making it a misdemeanor to buy tickets for ball games, theaters or other amusements, met death in the assembly today. The bill originated in the house and included theaters and moving pictures and sports, but the senate strangled it by amending it to include all outdoor resorts.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT YIELD TO STRIKERS

(By Associated Press.) PARIS, March 19.—The chamber of deputies by a vote of 354 to 188 refused to create a body to investigate the cause of the strike of the telegraphers and the Postal service, thus sustaining the ministry. The ministers declared it was impossible for the government to yield as it would be recognizing anarchy, but desired to leave the way open for the employes to return. The speech was ordered placarded throughout France.

MORE JAPANESE TROUBLES. (By Associated Press.) HONOLULU, March 19.—The senate passed a bill today prohibiting aliens from fishing in Hawaiian waters. It is aimed at the Japanese.

DYING HOURS OF THE NEVADA LEGISLATURE SPENT IN WRANGLING

Governor has Decided not to Call a Special Session as He Believes Present Banking Law is Sufficient.

(By Associated Press.) CARSON, March 19.—The last hours of the legislature which adjourned sine die at midnight last night were devoted to heated arguments on the banking bill which was finally adopted. The governor has decided not to call a special session mainly because it will take ten days' notice to do so, and he deemed the banking bill as passed sufficient for the present. The last measure to go through the senate was the mine inspector bill, which caused nearly as much discussion as the banking measure. This was the last matter on the calendar and it was finally passed. Many of the members have already departed and others are leaving on every train.

RULERS OF CENTRAL AMERICA TO CONFER

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 19.—Much discussion was occasioned by the suggestion coming from dispatches from Mexico City that the Central American presidents will hold a conference to reach an agreement in order to prevent the intervention of the United States and Mexico. It is believed if the plan is proposed, one of the Central American republic may find favor with Washington or Mexico. Recent reports establish the fact that there has been no hostilities as yet, but there is constant fear of an outbreak which the state department will be glad to see removed. A Mexican gunboat is being repaired to go to Central American waters.

WILL MAKE LARGE DONATION TO UNIVERSITY

(By Associated Press.) RENO, March 19.—It is stated that before Clarence Mackey sails for Europe on April 1 he will arrange to donate $250,000 for the Nevada state university's new library and administration building. President Stubbs has gone to New York to confer with Mackey. It is admitted there is a probability of receiving the donation before his leaving.

BLAMES PILOT FOR THE GROUNDING OF TRANSPORT

(By Associated Press.) HONOLULU, March 19.—The board of inquiry on the grounding of the transport Logan last Saturday ended its work today with a recommendation that Pilot Milton N. Sanders, who had charge of the vessel at the time, be suspended.

Prisoner Believed to have Told Where Lad Was Hidden--Large Rewards Have Been Offered.

(By Associated Press.) CLEVELAND, March 19.—A man answering the description of the kidnaper of Willie Whittle, the son of an attorney of Sharon, Pennsylvania, who had been stolen and held for ransom was arrested tonight and made a statement after which the detectives hurried away in an automobile. It is believed the boy will be returned to his parents in a few hours. The clue to the whereabouts of the lad was obtained from George Dougherty, the clerk at the Hotel Euclid, who recognized in a picture of the boy published in the paper the features of a lad who had arrived at the hotel last night accompanied by a man. Dougherty informed the police and the man was arrested, but the child was not in the hotel. The prisoner was sweated and made a statement which the detectives have not given out, but it is believed he told them where the boy was hidden and they have gone to get him.

SHARON (Pa.), March 19.—Frank Buhl, the millionaire uncle of Willie Whittle, started for Cleveland today. It is believed he had received word that the lad was found. Attorney Whittle has returned after searching wildly in all directions for his missing son. He traced the buggy in which the lad was taken away in last night to Warren, Ohio, where he found it standing. He declared he was ready to pay anything for the return of his son.

GRAND JURY INVESTIGATES GRAFT CHARGES

(By Associated Press.) PITTSBURG, March 19.—The grand jury investigating the charges of municipal graft presented its report to Judge Davis today. The court ordered the jury to report Monday saying it was delayed because of the extra seriousness of the cases and would take the matter under advisement.

Sharp is Liberated By Cooper Jury

(Associated Press.) NASHVILLE (Tenn.), March 19.—After acquitting John D. Sharp, who with Colonel Cooper and Robin Cooper had been indicted for the killing of Senator Carmack, but failing to reach an agreement on the other defendants, the jury was sent back to spend the third night of the deliberations despite the statement of the foreman that he believed it impossible to reach a verdict. Judge Hart insisted that they return to their deliberations and announced that he would not receive a decision if one was reached before tomorrow morning. Sharp was liberated as soon as the verdict in his case was announced.

TAFT SPENDS DAY VISITING ALMA MATER

(By Associated Press.) NEW HAVEN, March 19.—After sitting for three hours with his fellow members of the Yale corporation discussing the affairs of the university, President Taft returned to New York tonight accompanied by President Hadley of Yale. The students greeted Taft with the Yale yell, he responded to with a brief and witty speech. He said his heart was with Yale and even with his new labors pressing upon him the honors of his fellow corporation was too great to voluntarily relinquish.

NINE JURORS ARE ACCEPTED IN CALHOUN CASE

(By Associated Press.) SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—Theodore Binner, a decorator, was passed temporarily as the ninth juror in the Calhoun trial. This makes the third man accepted subject to a peremptory challenge. The other six are sworn to try the case. Binner was prejudiced against circumstantial evidence, but told the court his conscience would compel him to render a just verdict. He was accepted by the prosecution.

JACK JOHNSON IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

(By Associated Press.) VALPARISO (Ind.), March 19.—An automobile in which Jack Johnson, the colored heavyweight champion, was riding, overturned today and the fighter narrowly escaped serious injury. He said tonight that he knew nothing of the reported match with Ketchell, but was willing to make easy terms for him.

WALK STREET SUFFERING FROM SMALL POX

BAKERSFIELD, March 19.—Two young men who had just arrived from the country where they were working on a hay press were discovered to be suffering from small pox while walking the streets. They were sent to the pest house where they said they had been ill for three weeks. Precautions to prevent the spread of the disease have been taken.

SPECIAL GRAND JURY IN LOS ANGELES RETURNS SECRET INDICTMENT

Investigators of Graft Charges of the Harper Administration Have Finished Labors and Make Report.

(Associated Press.) LOS ANGELES, March 19.—After five hours of deliberation the special grand jury investigating the graft charges in connection with former Mayor Harper returned an indictment tonight, but presiding Judge James ordered the names withheld until after the arrests. Bail was fixed at $5000. It is generally believed that Nick Oswald, who is thought to have furnished E. T. Earl, owner of an evening paper, with evidence in connection with the redlight section which caused Harper to resign, and Earl and Joseph Durand, the alleged lieutenant of Oswald, were witnesses before the grand jury today. Harper and the other officials were not called.

HOUSE LISTENS TO READING OF TARIFF BILL

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 19.—The house transacted no other business but listening to the reading of the tariff bill, which occupied four hours and a half. It then adjourned until Monday. Simmons, of Tennessee, suggested that the reading be dispensed with as it was a farce and asked for the unanimous consent for the bill to be put to passage as it was evident no amendments would be permitted. The senate session lasted eight minutes. It received the census bill, referred it to the committee, swore in Oliver of Pennsylvania and adjourned until Monday.

DISTRICT COURT HOLDS NIGHT SESSION

At a night session of the district court last evening, the case of the Rocky Mountain Coal and Iron company vs. E. G. Osborne was heard and taken under advisement by the court. The plaintiff is suing the defendant for the sum of $541 and costs.

BALFOUR WILL CENSURE ENGLISH GOVERNMENT

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, March 19.—Balfour, the leader of the opposition in the house of commons, gave notice today of a move to censure the government because the number of ships asked for was not sufficient for the safety of the country. This means that a vote will be taken whether four or eight Dreadnaughts will be laid down a year.

IS AWARDED DECISION OVER BILLY PAPKE

(By Associated Press.) LOS ANGELES, March 19.—Jim Flynn, of Colorado, was awarded the decision over Billy Papke, of Illinois, in a ten-round bout tonight. The fight was pretty even all the way, but Flynn outpointed the thunderbolt and was given the decision. He drove Papke through the ropes in the seventh and fell through himself.

MAY LOSE HIS EYE SIGHT AS RESULT OF BURNS

There was practically no change yesterday in the condition of Henry Koppenberg, who was burned during the fire at Millers Wednesday night. Koppenberg is frightfully burned about the head and there is some doubt as to the possibility of saving his eyesight. The doctors stated last night that it would be several days yet before they could determine as to whether the injured man's eyes could be saved.

AFRICAN BARBERS MAY STRIKE

(By Associated Press.) OYSTER BAY, March 19.—Ex-President Roosevelt will be his own barber in Africa and does not intend to grow a full beard as has been reported. The ex-president has purchased a dozen sticks of shaving soap at a village drug store and has been practicing the use of a razor. Hundreds of offers of all kinds of articles for use on his African trip have come to Mr. Roosevelt, but he has refused to accept any of them.
